Robin,

I don't know why I am writing in this cuz I'm gonna see you so much. I guess this is for in ten years so I should say something wismicas "Do Do Do - Ba Ba-Ba Do". Never forget that and never forget your wonderful adolescence which I had a small ~~of~~ part in making so wonderful. You will be in my mind and heart always.

Love ya,
Dean

Hey Robin.

Dear Wat,
You're such a stiff! I never deked. I hope we can have some more wild and crazy times together before I move to Chicago. I'll miss you always. Remember me always. I'll miss you guys so much! 😢 Lots! You're really been good to me and I thank you for it.

Last year I wrote my year up to this but in ten years

Hey Robin.
It's a real pleasure to sign your yearbook. You a real great bird.
We've had some good times in the past and I hope we have some more.
I can remember the long talks we used to have in the park about life. Your atrocities in graphics always made me laugh. When your country dies and you look back on this look just remember me and the mate.
Have a good life. I hope you and Chuck last forever.
LOVE YOU ALWAYS BARRY

Robin,
I'm so glad I got to know you this year. You're an excellent person and I hope we will always keep in touch. We really had some great times and I'm sure we will continue to. We'll have a blast over the summer. I'll be up to see you all during the summer and we'll party together. Keep it up! Keep the sick jokes.
Love always,
Tim

Love Dad

Robin,
There is so much space on this page, but I can't think of what will sound right when you look at this book ten years from now and say "Who the hell wrote this?" (It was me at 8:15 in the morning on the second last day of school) It's been fun but the fun has just started, so here all the 'pain-in-the-butt about future life, but whatever happens I know you'll make it.

Love,
John

Robin,
I'm really not nice
glad that I met you. for all given
You are a very thanks

the help on exams!
me. Good luck Lynne Colella

Robin,
You Know what it is when you get to your 50th yearbook? There's not much to say. This year has been fun, as much as we complain about it. As I wrote in Judy's yearbook (but about her and Dave) when you and Chuck get married, send me an invitation. You're an excellent kid - even if you do look like a baboon - sure I know we will get together over the summer and in the coming year - you're such a cutie - Love, Anne

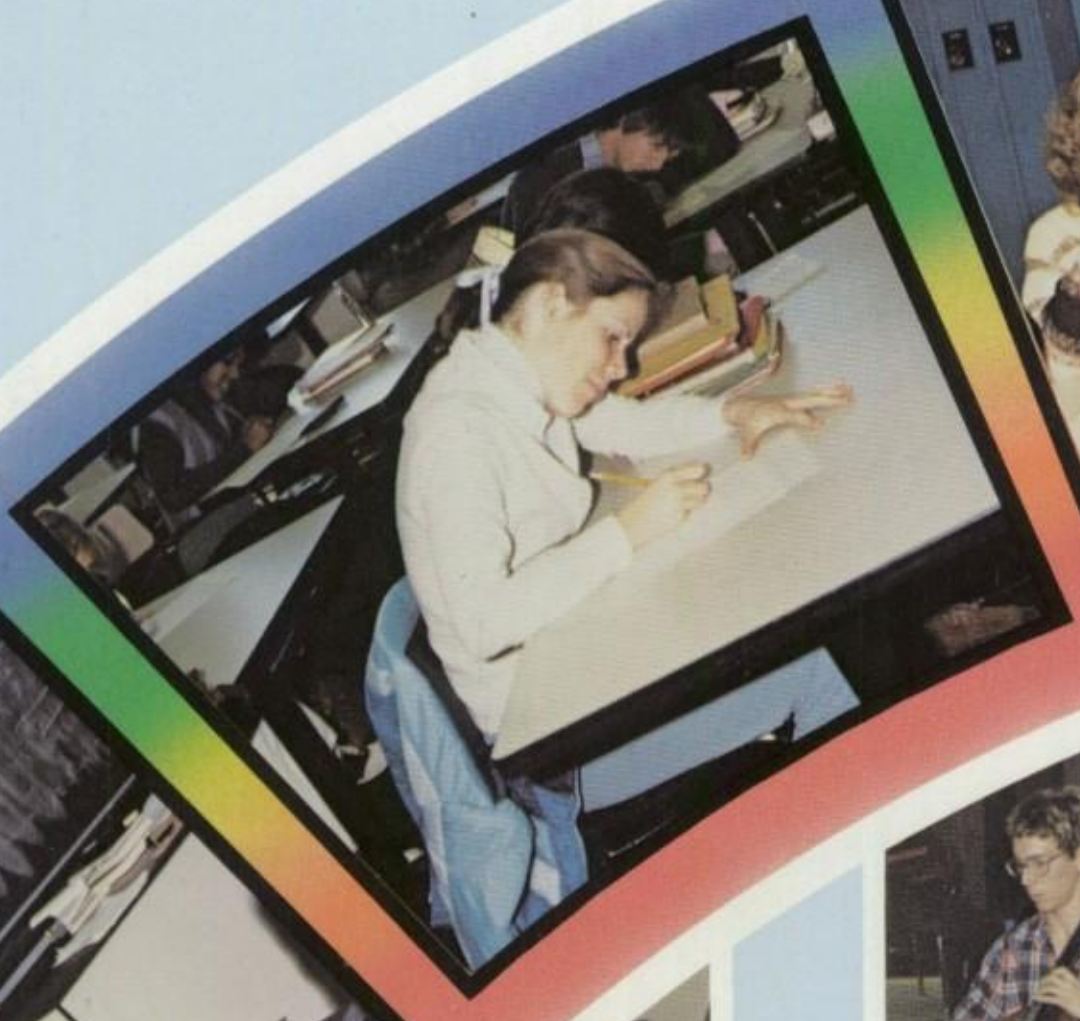
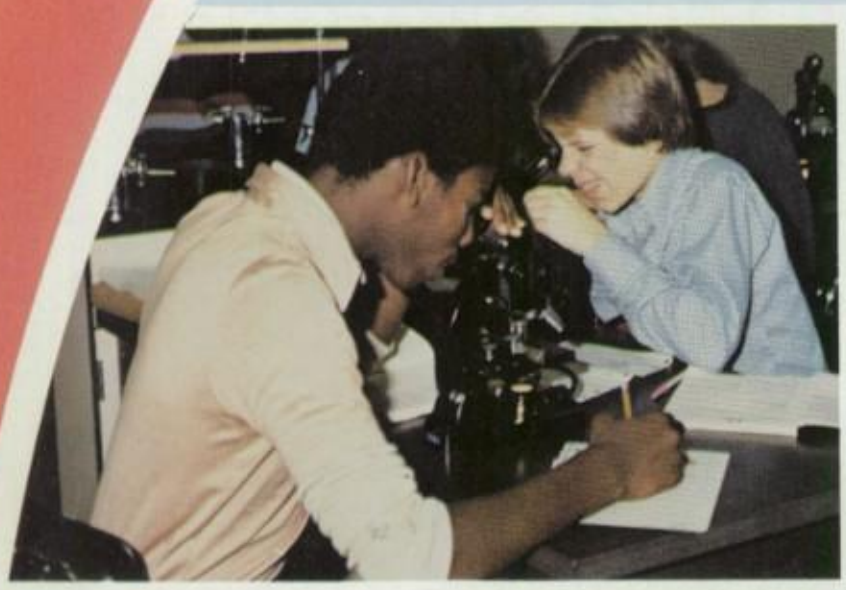
From the air East looks insignificant, just another building. To its students it is a place to meet friends, have fun, and learn from one another.





Robin, what are we gonna do next year everyone will be gone. (well almost everyone.) But we still have the summer. I'm sure I'll see you around there should be lots of parties.

The administration's job is to ensure that the school is a center for learning and personal growth. This job takes many forms. We work to give leadership to the school staff and to the instructional program and to provide the kind of school climate which will make your days productive and pleasant. When there are conflicting desires and understandings of students, faculty, parents, and other residents, it is our role to bring about a correct understanding and to make these sometimes divergent interests compatible with the purpose of the school. We like young people and have enjoyed working with them.

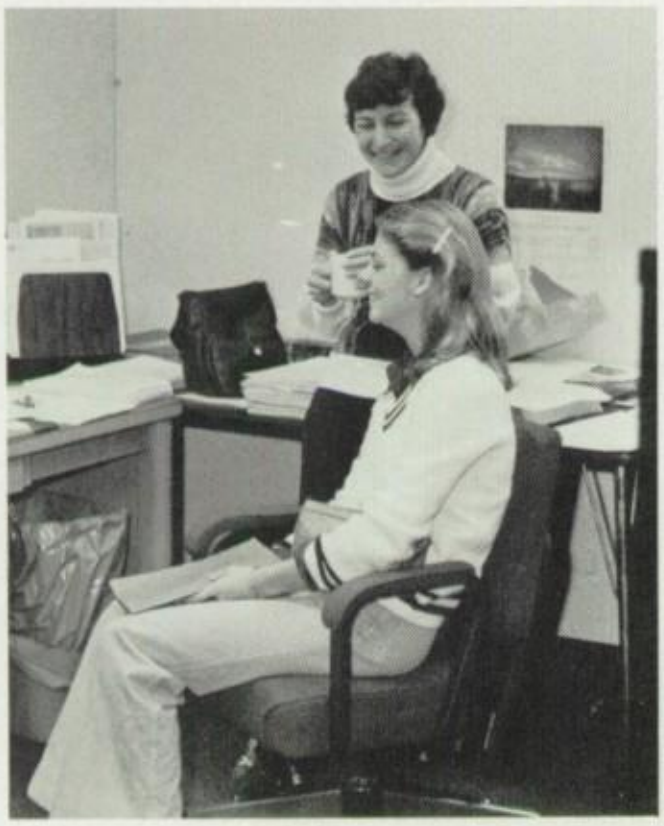
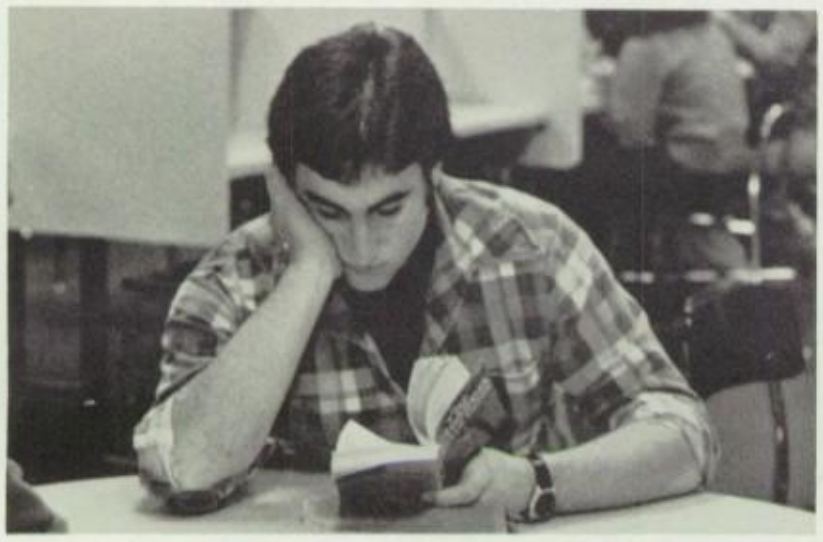
You want this in triplicate?



Coed dorms, huh?

This year the Guidance Department has two new, yet familiar faces. Miss Eddy has returned to East, Mrs. Arno, whom many students may remember, has been transferred from Casey.

The department works with students on developing their career awareness. The counselors and the students work together on introducing students to East's new career corners. They shall also continue to help the students make more responsible decisions, and give them guidance whenever they can.



You didn't, did you?

The Library in today's school is much more than a quiet place to study. On any given day in East's library, one will see students actively using the library resources for a variety of subject areas as well as for personal enrichment.

The goals of the library's program are to help students realize the wide range of material and information available to them in the library, and to motivate students to want to continue using the library for the rest of their lives. This motivation comes from successfully using a good high school library.

It has been said that an important criterion for evaluating a school is the number and quality of library assignments. East's library certainly passes this test, and with flying colors.

First period english.

"Is this a S-V-O or a S-LV-N?" cries a freshman English student. In these classes the students develop strength in writing, study a wide variety of books and review the basics of grammar.

"Do I have to take Writing Workshop?" whines a frustrated sophomore. But this workshop helps develop the writing abilities of all the students and has paid off. Rich Demme and Caryl Ricca have won national awards for writing.

"Is Reading Unlimited closed yet?" or "What letter are they on?" These questions buzz through the auditorium on English sign-up day. Through all the worry and anguish about who you're in class with or who is teaching the class, we forget that the English Department has designed the electives with each student in mind. They make these courses enjoyable with both the student and themselves in mind . . . Each teacher has his or her own way of teaching which offers the student a wide variety of personalities to choose from. The school is proud to have such a qualified department of teachers.

The core of the Social Studies curriculum was coordinated among three main areas — A.A.C., European, and American History. The department also offers electives for seniors, tailored to meet the wants and needs of the students. But in addition to teaching history, these classes serve to develop and improve basic skills such as reading, analyzing, locating, and communicating.

Hopefully, their efforts will continue to produce an understanding that will enable the students to take events of the past and apply them to today's world.

Mr. Tucker proposes a new teacher's parking lot.

If you think that Science is tough, don't despair. You are not alone. Almost any science teacher will agree that their subject matter is a great challenge to the average student. Don't give in though, for there are more reasons than ever to enroll in a science course.

Using everything from ammonia to assumptions, students participated in activities such as determining the speed of falling objects, the dismantling of rats and the forming of formulas.

The main goal behind the efforts of the Science Department was a desire to instill an appreciation for problem-solving and an awareness of what's happening, in the world of science.

The Math Department has operated with the basic goals of providing a firm foundation of basic skills in mathematics necessary for day to day living, and developing a student's math potential to the fullest according to his or her interests.

Most math courses are designed and leveled to offer a wide variety of academic and challenging techniques, and to show application to everyday life.

This past year, the department began to concentrate on more specific developments including increased use of supplemental audio-visual material, and coordination of courses within the math team itself.

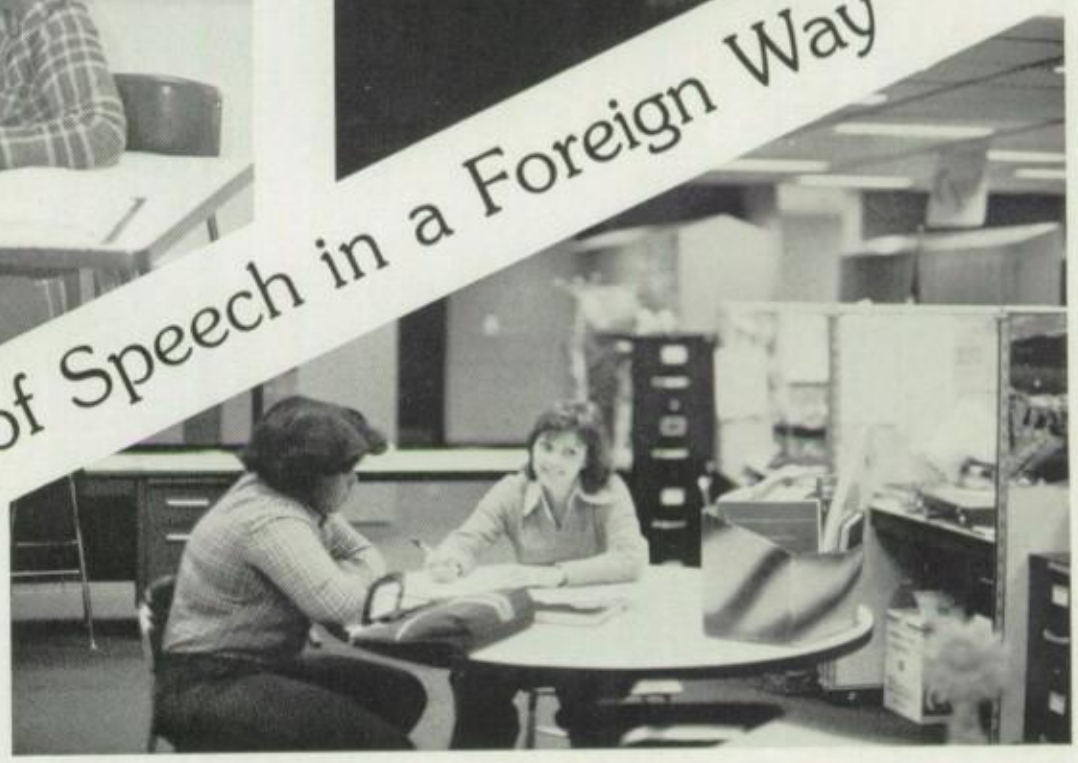
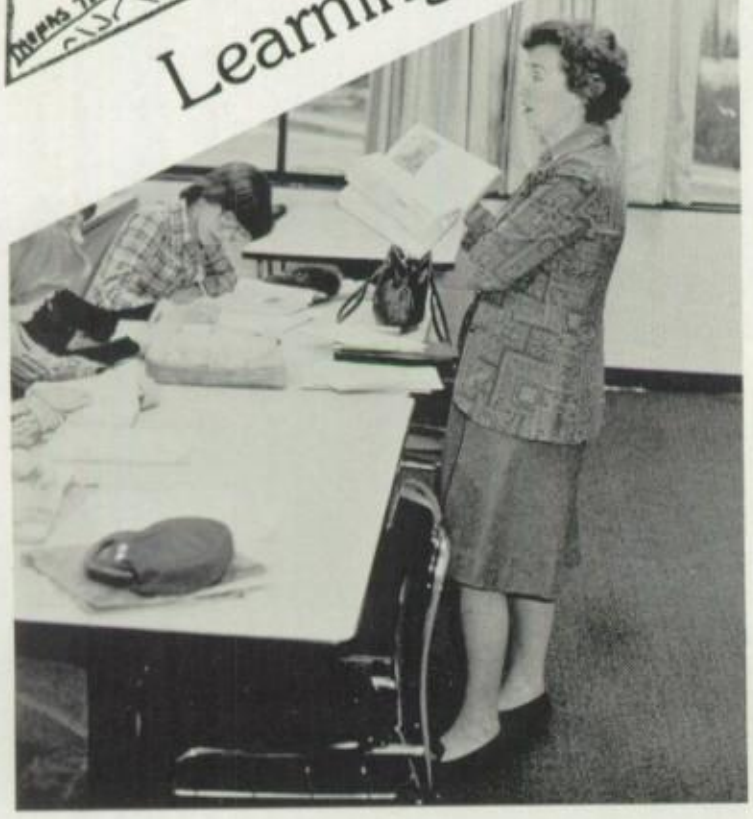
Learning the Parts of Speech in a Foreign Way





The Foreign Language Department has undergone numerous staff changes this year. We are pleased to welcome: Miss Patricia Kiebzak and Miss Lindley Bowen in Spanish; Mrs. Beverly Mills in Spanish and French; and Ms. Diann Rusch in German.

Foreign Language study provides a wealth of knowledge about the cultures and people of our world. Knowing a foreign language also provides improved career opportunities and can improve the students' comprehension of English.

East is fortunate to have available a variety of language courses taught by a team of teachers capable of sharing first hand knowledge of the cultures and people from many countries of the world.

East's 1978-79 Business Department has grown with the addition of another new member, Mr. Ralph Mauro.

The Business Department has adapted its curriculum to meet the ever changing needs of both the students and society. Diverse course offerings of practical skills-oriented secretarial training compliment the strong professional management-oriented academic courses.

Students have shown increased interest in designing schedules that stress either secretarial courses, management courses or a broad mixture of both areas. Today, students are becoming more aware that most opportunities after high school lie in the course fundamentals that the business department offers. The need for well-trained secretaries and the overwhelming demand for business management collage graduates has led to a strong demand in the business area. Non-business majors have become more interested in taking business electives as they complement their career interests.

Business is alive today. The department stresses the most up-to-date techniques and materials possible. The emphasis is definitely on what is happening today and on preparing students to meet the challenges of the future.

I guess I missed the joke.

Making everything practical, about practically everything is the best way to describe the Industrial Arts program at Williamsville East High School. Students interests, skills and available time vary; their future plans are many times unknown; the Industrial Arts program helps students to develop new interests, increase skills which they already have while developing new skills. The program allows the students to see the various opportunities available to them in our industrialized world. By structuring courses which will apply practicality to knowledge and theory learned in English, Math and Science classes, the Industrial Arts teachers have developed course work which will give students a practical use for many things they learned in their years in school.

As many of the major industrial areas are covered in the Industrial Arts program as time and staff will allow. Courses stress learning by doing. Students remember more when involved in their course work than when they listen to a course being presented.

Industrial Arts helps students discover and develop talents, attitudes, interests and potentialities for future pursuits; develop basic skills for proper use of equipment; develops problem-solving and creative abilities; and provides exposure to materials, techniques, and processes for future consumers to become wise buyers, and users of industrially fabricated products.

Learning by doing, that's Industrial Arts.

In the four years since the opening of East High, The Art Department has sought to build a program which will foster the growth and development of each art student, whether or not that student is an art major.

An expanded curriculum is the goal of the Art Department. They have added areas of photography, sculpture, and oil painting and expanded crafts to enrich the current core of drawing, painting, and design.

Overall, the department emphasizes art as a process, not an end.

East's Music program encompasses many activities, both in-class and extra curricular. The Department consists of two bands, the Jazz Ensemble, two Choruses, Madrigals, Boys' Barbershop Quartet, Orchestra, and various other small ensembles. The Wind Ensemble, Chorale, and Orchestra rank among the highest school performing groups in New York State. Students learn basic skills in reading and writing music in theory classes, and apply these skills in performing organizations. Several concerts were presented throughout the year, such as the traditional Winterfest and Springfest. Performances were also given by the various ensembles in and around local areas.

What's Cooking Besides Cookies?

The main emphasis of the Home Economics curriculum is on the home and the family. It is designed to teach boys and girls how to cope with all phases of life and how to maintain a home, whether they marry and have a family or remain single. The program also provides a prevocational background for numerous Home Economics-related careers.

The courses offered center on the four main subject areas of Home Economics: Human Development; Housing, Furnishings, and Equipment; Foods and Nutrition; and Clothing and Textiles. One of the more popular courses is the new "Parenthood and the Family" which will help students to realize and prepare for the responsibilities and commitments of marriage and parenthood.

Home Economics should be a part of every student's high school education to help them be better prepared for their future.

The main emphasis of the Physical Education Department is on education through physical activity. This includes the development and awareness of necessary skills as well as knowledge of the rules. To more effectively achieve this end, students are allowed to choose the area they enjoy the most.

Beyond the scope of the in-school program, other areas are available to those with the time and the inclination. Interscholastic sports are based on ability as well as interest.

To keep in step with the needs of the student body, the Physical Education Department is constantly reviewing its goals. One of the most important developments is the increasing emphasis on sports that carry over into adulthood. This kind of re-evaluation contributes to a more effective program.

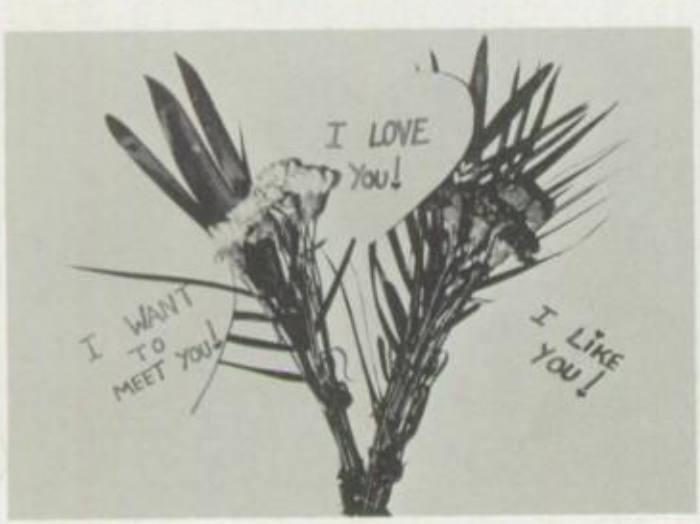
Student Council—We Did It All For You



The Student Council at East was productive during the 1978-79 school year. One of its achievements concerned the budget vote in the fall. Student Council Representatives campaigned throughout the East area in order to help people understand what the budget proposals meant. Everyone's efforts proved successful. Student Council also sponsored a jacket sale and added another pop machine in the gym area.

To start off the new year, six Student Council Representatives and Mr. Prezepasniak, the advisor, attended the NYSSSSO (New York State Secondary School Student Organization) Conference in Albany. They accomplished much work and learned a great deal while having a great time. February featured a carnation sale for Valentine's Day, followed by a dance with "Lance".

Student Council has always tried to accomplish what the Student body wants and all of its members are proud.

This year the Williamsville East DECA chapter was busier than ever. After the regional competition against other area schools, the members travelled to the Concord Hotel, in Kiamesa Lake, New York, for State Competition. There they competed against schools from across the state. The state winners then attended the National Competition held in the Astrodome in Houston, Texas, from May 7-12. The DECA Chapter would like to extend their appreciation to the administration for their outstanding cooperation this past year.

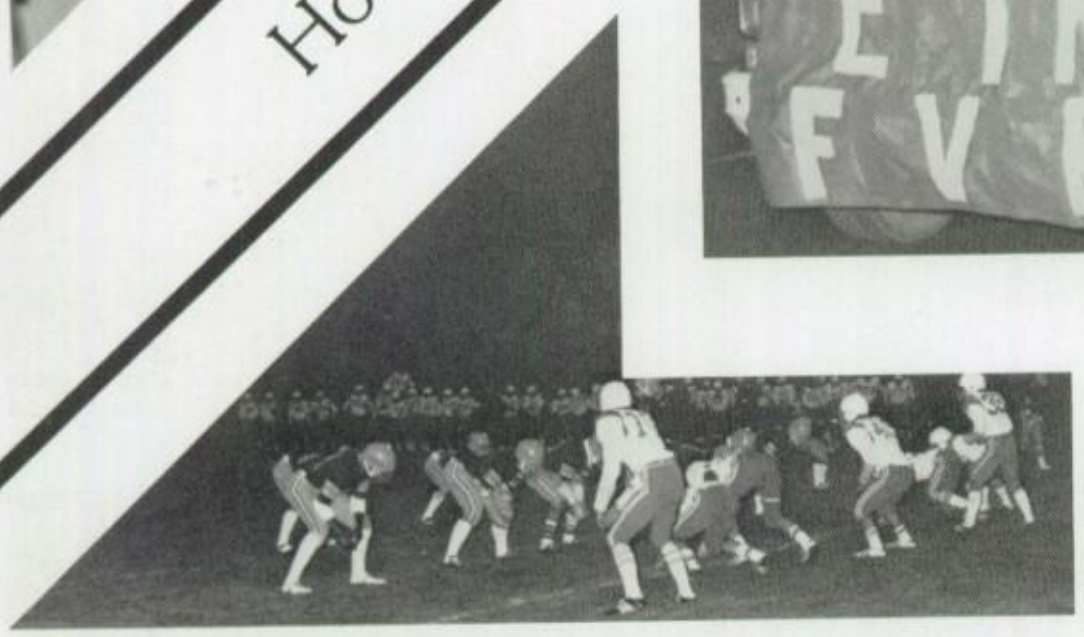
Homecoming

"Senior Fever"



Spirits of Darkness.

Dancing the night away.

Williamsville East's fourth Homecoming Week started out with a bang and ended with an explosion.

Beginning on Monday the rise to the end began with the school dressed for the country on Farmer's Day. Fortunately Halloween fell on Tuesday and the ghosts and goblins of the Underworld were allowed to roam free. Greaser Day "bopped in" on Wednesday with pig tails, bobby socks and slick hair. East glowed on Thursday with the array of red and gold. With the end fast approaching minds began to wonder about the results of the Homecoming Royalty. Dress-up Day marked the beginning of the big day. This was an appropriate way to end the week of fun-filled activities.

This years nominees for Homecoming Queen were Lisa Faller, Pam Pantera, Marlana Chickos, Kris Mason and Kathy Bartfay. The nominees for Big Man on Campus were Tre Mischka, Tom Rossetti, Doug Pietrick, Jerry Grisko, and Dave Bolz.

School inspires beastly instincts.

The suspense ended at the Pep Rally when Pam Pantera and Doug Pietrick were announced the winners.

The annual Homecoming Parade began at school and drove around Williamsville before the game started. A record number of floats were entered and the prize for the best went to the Senior class.

The Homecoming game was played at South against East's arch rival North. After a hard struggle on North's part, East swept away the victory with the final score 24-7.

On Saturday in the commons the Senior Class presented the Homecoming Dance. Featuring Emerald City, the dance was a sellout. All of those attended danced into the night enjoying the success of the week, the victory of the game, and the school spirit.

Boys' Barbershop

The Boys' Barbershop quartet has participated in school concerts and performances throughout the year.

The group performed in four part traditional harmony, popular during the turn of the 19th century.

All the music sung was performed without accompaniment and done with choreography.

They have performed throughout the local area, at Rotary functions, Senior Citizen groups, and Buffalo Convention Center for an example, and leave, also competed at the NYSMMA choral festival.

The madrigals are distinguished for their unique, highly defined and trained sound.

Row 3 — Scott Lackey, Mike Toepher, Chip Byers, Fred Mett, Dan Charette, Monty Gray.

Mixed Chorus

Mixed chorus is the foundation vocal course at East High School. The members are interested mainly in learning how to read music. They develop music-reading skills and there is a great deal of emphasis on this aspect of singing.

The chorus consists of both Freshman and Upperclassmen. The members who spend one year in Mixed Chorus then move onto Select Chorale.

The mixed chorus has performed in the winter concert in January and the Springfest in May.

Wind Ensemble

Wind Ensemble has performed four concerts in East's auditorium this year. In October both the Wind Ensemble and the Concert Band produced a Pops Concert and dinner for over three hundred senior citizens.

Wind Ensemble also performed at Winterfest IV and produced a Concerto Concert featuring outstanding senior musicians. A spring concert, competition at the NYSSMA Festival, an annual outdoor concert at Artpark and a band banquet concluded the year.

Concert Band

The Concert Band of Williamsville East held concerts in November and February and performed at Artpark in June. Individual members of Concert Band have participated in the All-State Music Festival and the Erie County Festival Auditions. The entire band performed in the NYSSMA Competition in May. Concert Band, along with Wind Ensemble, Jazz Ensemble, and the Choral groups participated in a full year of musical experiences at Williamsville East.

The Drama society has grown larger, and has increased in number over the past four years. Last years Spring play "Flowers For Algernon" was an enormous success, with everyone involved putting forth his efforts. In the fall workshops were held dealing in exercises for relaxation when on stage which benefited all those involved.

During the fall, the club held a coffee shop at North, also a Childrens Theater at Maple East with plays adapted by some of the members. The drama society has had strong underclass support and we should expect to see more of their overflowing talent in the coming years.

Girls' Athletic Association

The goal of the Girl's Athletic Association is to bring girls together to support girls athletics. In the fall the girls began to work hard by faithfully attending meetings. To help finance the year, the girls sold candy and pop at all home basketball games. Led by President Kim Mack the club moved on to a camping trip in January, a tobogganing party, a car wash in May and they ended the year with the GAA annual banquet.

They hope to continue the strong support and that many new girls will join for next year so that they can continue to reach their goal.

Hi!

I'm Mauricio Simon Bouskela, from Campinas, Brazil. My name seemed to be a little hard to pronounce for a lot of you when I first came, and perhaps you'll forget it in the future, but there are things, as well as people, situations and places I visited that will be hard for me to forget!

In the school I had a lot of new opportunities such as choosing my own subjects, something that I couldn't do in my own school. Another new opportunity was changing of classrooms between mods. By being able to do this, I made a lot of new friends.

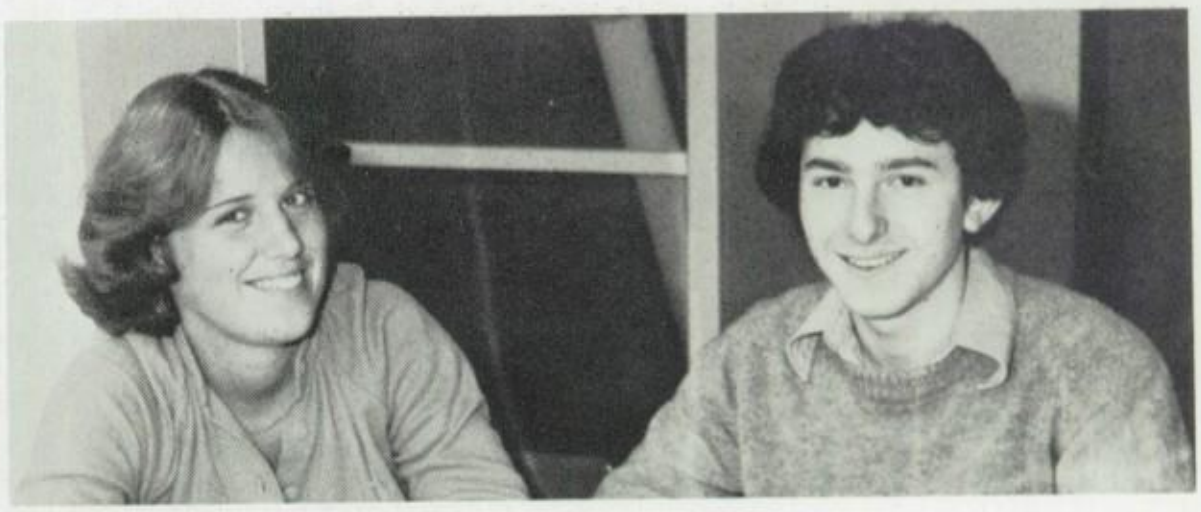
When I had any trouble with either the language or understanding what was going on, the people always seemed to be friendly and willing to help.

When I look back on my questions when I was packing my suitcase in Brazil last summer I wondered, "What will happen to me facing a new life?" I just can say that I feel proud of the people who helped me and I ask for the opportunity to thank them all!

And then I recall my "SNOW EXPERIENCE", I just say: "I Love It"

TCHAU

Mauricio Simon Bouskela



I came to Williamsville East in November after spending three months in a little town in Pennsylvania. I arrived just in time to experience a blizzard, or at least so I had been told in Pennsylvania. But there hasn't been any blizzard!! What a "delusion"!

I really enjoyed the WEHS open atmosphere and having the opportunity to choose courses that I couldn't have taken in Italy like Photography, Independent English, American History and all the others.

I also enjoyed the zoo! (this is how the cafeteria was defined to me before entering the new school.)

My year in the United States has been a wonderful experience and challenge and I will never forget it.

I also want to thank everybody in the school who made it possible and who had such a big part in making my stay so great.

To fund the hosting of the exchange students, North and East joined forces for the annual pizza sale.

The sharing and learning opportunities that the club members have experienced in the last year will be treasured forever.

Easterly Winds

"Easterly Winds", written by Mary Jo Darling and Pat Weeks is Williamsville East's column in the Amherst Bee. The "Senior of the Week", a regular feature, is a device by which the hard work and talents of Senior students are given recognition. The column also gives information on various school activities.

Honor Society

The National Honor Society at East has grown to 67 members this year. They are selected for recognition, not only for work in school, but also for leadership, service and character.

The members were found in a variety of organizations in and out of school. Twice this year, they sponsored a blood bank. They were commended for the amount of donations they received.

Due to the budget, they sponsored a Bowl-A-Thon as a fund raiser. The money was used for a Christmas party, awards at the end of the year and for an induction party given for all new members.

The Honor Society hopes to expand its size and also its activities for the coming years.

LIBRARY CLUB

The Library club has 27 student volunteers who spend their free periods working in the library. They check books out, help other students find books, audio visual materials, microfilm and magazines. Members also have regular after school meetings and parties. The club presented a horror movie, The Corpse Grinders, for January 19, and decided to buy books for the library with the profits.

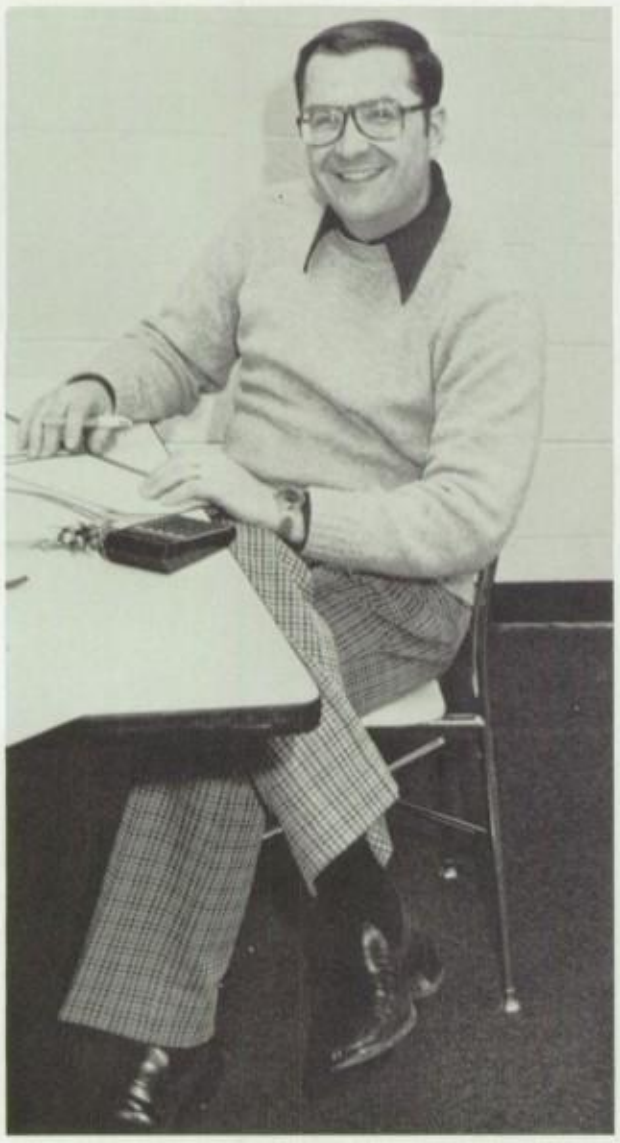
Spark 1979



Mr. Ray Engler – Advisor

In the spring of '78 the 1979 SPARK was well into its planning stages. Over the summer, editors Gary Carrel and Tracy Boser along with photo-editor Dave Welsh attended an extensive summer seminar and were introduced to new ideas and techniques for the betterment of this year's book.

September '78 brought an increased student involvement which soon evolved into a strong core staff. With the guidance of advisor Ray Engler and the Rainbow theme, the SPARK was well on its way.

By the end of the year, all the questions, problems and dilemmas had been solved. Only with a hard working dedicated core staff, who sacrificed much of their time, talents and in some cases family relationships, could have put so much in and brought forth a meaningful story of this year in words and pictures.

Team Work!?!

Football

East's Varsity Football Team under the new leadership of Coach Pat Wyatt, earned a team record of 4-2-2.

The loss of eleven starters left a big hole but the seniors in the squad provided a good base to build the team on.

Outstanding performances during the season were given by Captain Doug Pietrick, who made first all league team. Other players were Captain Larry Wheeler, Jerry Grisko, and Mark Lewis who played on the second all league team.

The Flames operated on the fast hitting Veer offense. With strong quarterbacks, running backs, and an offensive line it was easy for them to put the plan in action.

With triple option offense and more passing, next year plenty of fireworks can be expected.

The 1978 Junior Varsity had a very successful season. With 27 returning players from the Freshman team it had no choice.

Exciting as last year's campaign was, this year's team was as talented as any J.V. team fielded by the Flames in its history.

The Girl's Tennis Team had an interesting 1978 season. Captains Lisa Faller and Cindy Graziano along with Coach Mary Gage led the team to a record of 7-4.

The team had several highlights this year. They defeated our rival North twice; and eighth grade student, Christi Mance from Casey playing in the first singles position; services of a huge charter bus (an accident, of course); and reasonably pleasant weather.

Despite our graduating seniors; Carolyn Ash, Liz Cramer, Wendy Davis, Karen Gebhardt, Pam Pantera and Laura Polisson, much talent will remain for the 1979 season.

Boys' Hockey

The Williamsville East Ice Hockey team was coached by John Vella. The Flames ended the season with a 7-8-1 record.

The many hours of practice at Boulevard Twin Rinks proved profitable to the team for they were selected to play in the playoffs. Unfortunately they were eliminated in the first round by Grand Island.

Although the team is losing many all-star seniors, they are getting ready for another exciting season.

Face-off

Howie guards his domain.

Basketball

Coached under Jim Johnson, the Boys' Basketball team had a phenominal season! Long hours were spent perfecting the skills needed to put it all together. And they did just that with a regular season record of 17-1. Adding to their credits, the team had an 18 game winning streak, the top in Western New York. The captains were Mike Howse and Paul Daddario. Mike Howse was the team's most valuable player, being the team's highest scorer.

The regular season game against Lackawana changed the tempo and assured East of a place in the championships. The sectional championships, played at the Memorial Auditorium, proved to be the most exciting game of the season. Going into double over time, the crowd was found on the edge of their seats, with emotions at their peak until the final buzzer sounded. Winning that game enabled them to play at Rochester in the New York State Public High School Athletic Association Western Conference game.

We regretfully say good-bye to the team's seniors Mike Howse, Paul Daddario, Eric Jung, Steve Reilly, and Andy O'Donnell, who helped make this an unforgettable season! The weight will now lay on the strong shoulders of the juniors and sophomore Rich Howse. The future looks bright, and we look forward to continuing to cheer our team on.

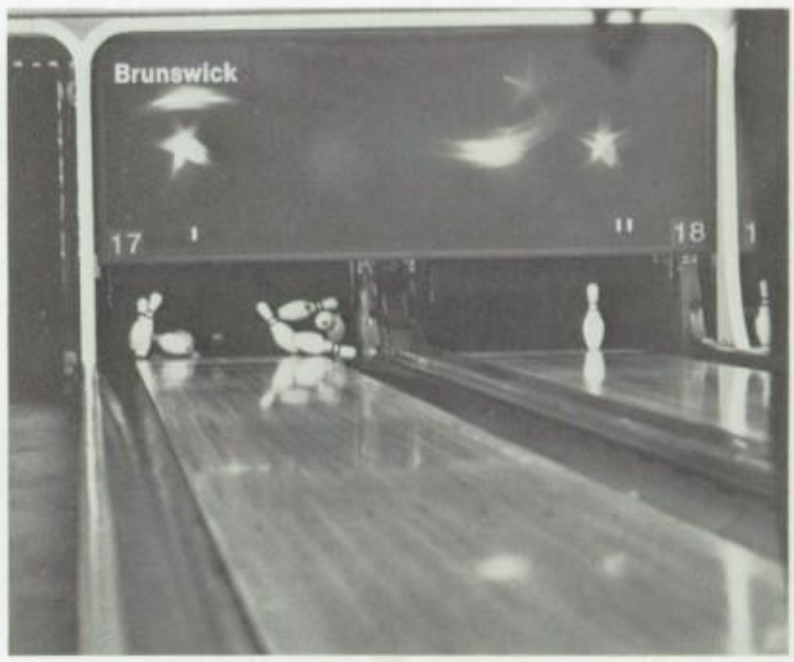
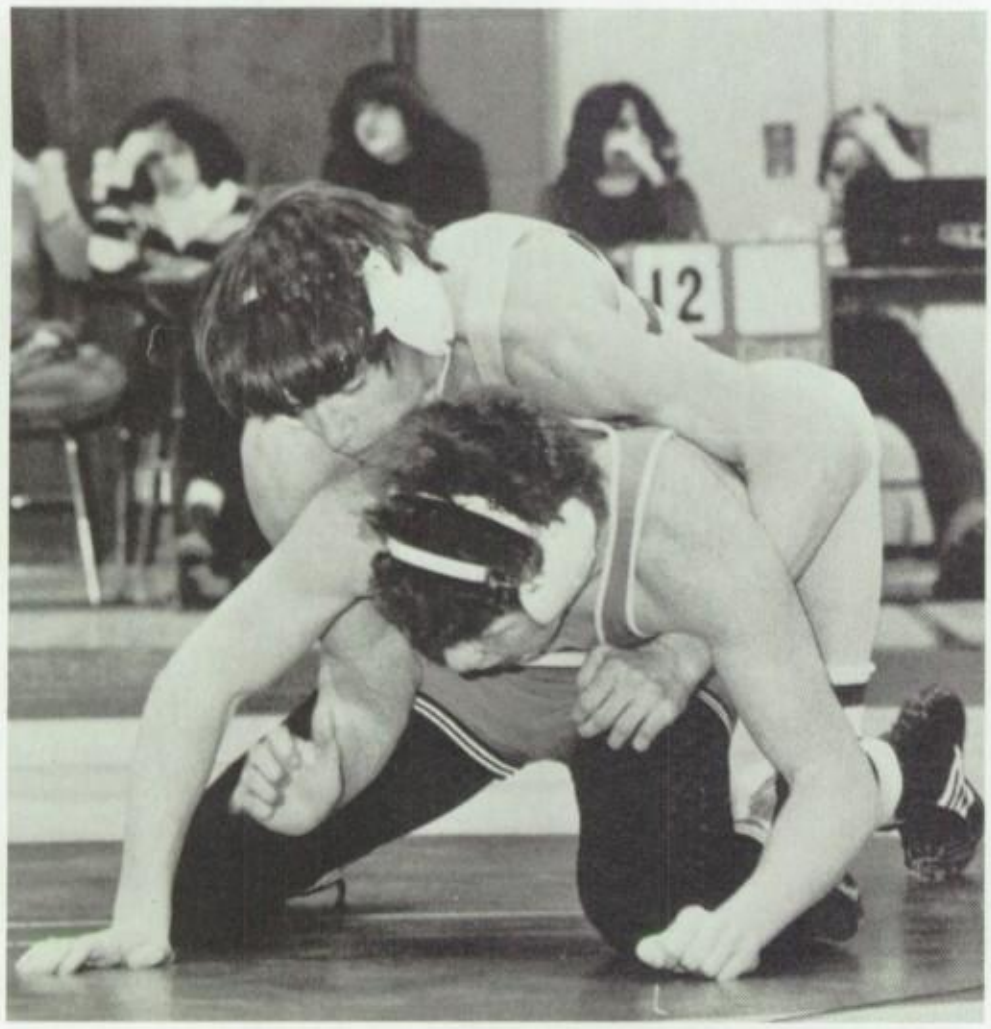
With a strong outlook for next year's varsity team, Coach Hostetler is looking forward to an even better season next year.





Wrestling

The Wrestling Teams of Williamsville East showed through again with a successful season. With Coach Roy Guarino and Ass't. Coach Larry Kingston, they were able to develop into a division power.

Their success last winter in winning the Division II Championships spurred the team in hopes of winning it once again.

The Class of 1982

Freshman year has always been a difficult year for the officers. This year's officers however had no problem getting over the hurdle of a late start. With Chris Ryan — President; Steve Perelstein — Vice-President; Beth Sheehan — Secretary and Katy Doyle — Treasurer, the class had no difficulty.

The first order of business for any group that is just starting out in the school, is building up a treasury. The fall fund raising program was a total success putting over $1000 in the bank. With exceptional support from the class, the steering committee accomplished much. With plans of car washes, dances, and concerts, the class had much to look forward to.

Hopefully, this tremendous amount of class unity will serve to strengthen the Class of '82 and lend to an even more successful Sophomore year.

Freshman Class Officers: Chris Ryan — President; Steve Perelstein — Vice-President; Beth Sheehan — Secretary and Katy Doyle — Treasurer.

The Class of 1981

The Sophomore class was led by Jim Romano — President; Lucy Ronca — Vice-President; Lucy Lenoci — Secretary; and Amy Wilinsky — Treasurer.

During the fall, the sophomore class sponsored the chilling movie, Psycho. The float for homecoming was titled "Wipe out the Spartans." This received much support from the class.

Just before Christmas vacation, members of the sophomore class went to the Heathwood Nursing Home to carol for the shut-ins. Delicious cookies were served by the carolers to all the residents.

Second semester the officers worked very hard to select a ring company to design a class ring which would include the school's logo. Later, a committee of interested sophomores worked out the details for the rings.

Sincere Inspiration

The Class of 1980

The Class of '80 started the year off with a flourish. On the first Friday of school, the class sponsored a back-to-school dance featuring "The Road". The officers were as follows Sue Bradenburg — President; Patty Karrer — Vice-President; Anne Gorman — Treasurer and Linda Weise — Secretary.

The successful Juniors continued with a dance featuring "Flash Stud Sound" and an Animal Man Contest featuring again "Flash Stud Sound". Both of these activities proved very profitable.

During the rest of the year the Juniors planned and presented to the school, movies, dances and for the Juniors a class night and a pancake breakfast.

After this exciting year, the goal of 80 is to become even more unified for its Senior year.

Seniors

Live your life each day as you would climb a mountain. An occasional glance toward the summit keeps the goal in mind, but many beautiful scenes are to be observed from each new vantage point. Climb slowly steadily, enjoying each passing moment and the view from the summit will serve as a fitting climax for the journey.

Senior History

Freshmen

Freshman? Who ... us? Surprising as it may seem, these questions were once primary in our minds. We have since matured, even mellowed, and are satisfied by an occasional cry of: What will I do now? Guidance Counselors and Teachers, at one time merely tolerated, have become the unfortunate victims in our frantic search for the ultimate answer. Is there life after high school?

Let us return to a simpler time, when the only pressing question was: Is this huge expanse of carpet and color really the second floor?

It seems as though we were never really freshman at all. Every person in the school was as lost as the other. The art room was the third bus on the left. We could eat lunch on a steam shovel. But for the strangest of reasons we didn't mind.

After a late start, the Class of '79 began to organize themselves. Officers names were: President — Kathy Mack; Vice-President — Dave Bolz; Secretary — Lucille Cerasa; and Treasurer — Andrea Terzi. Mr. and Mrs. Blaisdell received the dubious title of class advisors and perservered through every problem we posed.

Homecoming arrived quickly and found the Freshman with the winning float, a Viking ship that read "Burn the Vikings". The gym was not completed yet and so, for the first year, Pep rallies were held in the student parking lot. Our class also staged a successful fund raiser, the "Win-A-Frosh" contest. It was a successful venture and it gave the winners a chance to have a Freshman as their personal servant for a day.

The first year at East also brought on a Teacher strike. While the teachers picketed outside, inside strange and unusual activities were going on. Music was piped into the Commons, games were brought out on the second floor and on the third floor you could tune into your favorite soap opera. Lap-sitting was the new sport introduced during this time and as we got better more people found out about this sport. East was covered by the news media: the papers, television and the radio, and as time wore on, the laps wore out.

Christmas arrived and with a Christmas Dance sponsored by our class in the commons. Although much work was put into it, the dance was not too successful. One factor however was started and that was class unity.

By the new year, the school was almost completed and with that the class moved into the school spirit. Unspeakable things began to happen. A word called SKIP slowly entered the minds of unknowing Freshman and along with that came missed classes. Lockers became something to decorate not something just to put your coat in.

Spring slowly filtered in and passed quickly with no real upsets or problems. Before we knew it our first year was over and somewhere in the class of '79 there lingered hope.

Sophomores

As Sophomores we were deeply ingrained with a sense of eliteness as we directed unknowing Freshman to non-existent classrooms on the second and third floor. Elections were again held with the following appointments: returning President — Kathy Mack; Vice-President — Lucille Cerasa; Secretary — Marlana Chickos; and Treasurer — Vince Cryns.

Our class started the year off with a fund raiser and netted over $500 of record sales.

With Fall rapidly approaching, Homecoming Week seemed to arrive without much effort. The girls staged the first Powder Puff Football game. It was the Sophomores and the Juniors against the Freshman and the Seniors. The combined effort brought the Sophomores through with flying colors. The final score 2-0.

During Friday's Pep Rally "The Spinners" arrived at East with their version of their new hit song. The rally motivated the school spirit and that motivation carried the football team to a victorious win.

On Saturday, November 13, the Homecoming Dance with the theme of "A Time for Us" was held in the commons. The dance was a success and has been remembered by all.

With the onset of cold weather came the onset of another bright spot to East — Godspell. The never to be forgotton production of Godspell gave the school the extra boost it needed and also started a new tradition in the music area.

Christmas past and early on the morning of February 1 — "The Blizzard of '77" hit Buffalo and its surrounding areas. Schools closed and roads closed, Buffalo practically shut her doors to the world. As always, bad things do go away and eventually so did the blizzard.

School reopened and the Sophomores held their second dance "Disco Night at East". The dance a semi-success, brightened the snowy filled days for all of those who attended. Also during this time, East students flocked to the ski slopes and were in high glory over the conditions of the slopes.

Winter ran into Spring and that brought the Drama Society's first full length play to East. "Pillow Talk" played May 13 and 14. Although much support was still needed from the school, many of us will never forget the special times that were made and shared during rehersals.

Finals were before us, and before we knew it and with that came the beginning of Summer. Still something is the class of '79 lurked in the shadows. It wasn't the past, it was the ever present future.

Juniors

There was something definitely sobering in becoming a Junior. That "let's-appreciate-it-while-we-can" feeling was not upon us but we sensed the Seniors slipping into something of which we knew little.

After a vigorous election campaign the Juniors elected new class officers. They were: Tom Rossetti — President; Dave Bolz — Vice-President; Linda Katz — Secretary; and Tina Szoke — Treasurer.

Fall began with an impressive fund-raising program. A fire wood sale was organized and together we were able to split, deliver and stack sixty cords of wood. This endeavor netted over $600.

Football games started and so did the concession stand. The many cold nights, proved profitable to the Juniors as we sold hot chocolate and coffee at the games.

Homecoming Week arrived again and for the third year East was full of spirit.

Friday's Pep Rally brightened everyone's spirit and moved the team, however, to a loss. This was the second and last loss of the season. On Saturday, October 29, the Homecoming Dance was held with the theme of "Just That Time of Year". The Road performed and for the first year the dance was a sell-out.

East's football team ended the season with the Division Title and two trophies. The Clarkson Trophy and The Ronneker Trophy were presented to the football team.

Winter arrived and with it arrived the weather that Buffalo is so famous for. December 5 the storm hit. In classes students gazed out the windows and wondered. Teachers worried if they would ever get home and in the office the Administration kept in constant contact with the weather service and the bus garage. Finally, the word came through to send the kids home. The elementary and middle school had to be sent home first, so here at East everyone settled in for a long wait. Worried and concerned parents trickled in to pick up their kids. Around 5:00 the first bus arrived and more buses continued to trickle in. By 7:30 everyone was out of the building and home.

Christmas passed and as soon as everyone was back into the swing of things North started to advertise for a gong show with area celebrities. It promised to be a real show. The night came and when the judging was final, East students took second and third places. You see it was becoming a force of habit.

St. Patrick's day arrived and with that came a concert. Sponsored by the Junior class, Talas played to a sell-out crowd in the auditorium. The band was excellent and a good time was enjoyed by all.

May filtered in and with that came the Junior Dinner. Enjoyed by all, it gave the class a chance to get together and enjoy itself.

Finals came and were over very soon. Our class felt sort of lost for we were getting ready for our senior year . . . with a lot to look forward to and a lot to look back on.

Seniors

Seniors — The word portrays steadiness and maturity. How could it possibly refer to us? We had grown very close to the class of '78 and had studdied them carefully to be ready for our newly acquired roles.

The Senior Class elected: Dave Bolz — President; Patty Gorman — Vice-President; Ed Orenstein — Treasurer; and Pam Recoon — Secretary.

East High School was now operating at full capacity. The Williamsville School District opened in '78 operating under a state-mandated austerity budget. Buses were not running so the streets leading to East were filled with walkers, bikers, and drivers. During the third week of September a budget was passed and the buses were restored.

When the football season opened, our class again ran the concession stand.

Our Senior Homecoming was especially exciting because the Queen and Big Man on Campus would be chosen from our class. Pam Pantera was crowned Queen and Doug Pietrick was named Big Man on Campus. The Flames defeated the Williamsville North Spartans, winning their fourth Homecoming Game. The Homecoming Dance was held Saturday night in the commons.

In sport's, the football team won the Ronneker Trophy for the second year in a row. In East's first sectional soccer game, Dave Verso scored the winning goal against the previous champion, Grand Island.

During November several successful dances featuring Flash-Stud Sound were held. Many people attended the dances and a fun time was enjoyed by all.

On December 15, the Senior Class held its first Senior Breakfast at Perkins Pancake House. Beginning at 6:30, 160 seniors began to arrive. All that attended will never forget that morning for a fun time was enjoyed by all.

College applications hounded many students. Those of us who survived the December flooding of the Guidance office, still had June graduation in the back of our minds.

The Senior Class wrapped up the year with that most magical event, "The Senior Prom", which was held at Samuels Grande Manor in Clarence. The Prom was attended by many and enjoyed by all.

We would of course march into Artpark as tradition dictated. Some of us smiling, many teary eyed, all filled with the strange wonder of that which is yet to be. As tassels turned it would be that traditional conclusion which would fill our hearts; everyone lunging in all directions, to stand on sod with educated feet! In that brief moment after our descent, we would perhaps, hear the echo from our elementary school days. Our own adaptation of "One small step for man . . . "

Congratulations to you, the first four year graduating class of Williamsville East High School.

The Class Of 1979

The diverse talents of the entire class of '79 makes them stand-out. When the class comes together something special happens.

The Class of '79 sponsored a variety of activities throughout the year. The summer car wash, concession stand at the football games, and the paper drive received a good response for volunteers from the class.

The Fall brought the annual Homecoming Dance which featured Emerald City. The student body chose Pam Pantera and Doug Pietrick as the Homecoming Royalty. The Dance attended by many was a smashing success.

The year winded down with the annual, "Almost Anything Goes" contest held at East. The Senior Dinner held in May rejuvinated spirit and prepared the class for graduation and the final activities as a class.

The class wrapped up the year with the Senior Prom held at Samuels Grande Manor. Following the theme of "Reminiscing" and featuring Juntion West, we finished our Senior year with unforgettable memories.

Robin,
I really don't know what to write. You've been a really good friend, don't know what I would have done without you. It's been a pretty ~~good~~ year for me but we've had ~~shitty~~ some good times. The Stacks, I don't think I'll ever get me to dance again - De Puerto Rican, the Mongoloid and the whatever the hell the other one was. We could've got lucky. This is so stupid. I hate writing these things; I can't think of much else to ~~say~~ except don't you know that's its a custom to hit peoples cars in America when you want to meet them. Maybe some weekend we'll finish that bottle of vodka, oh yeah I mean tequila and we can make morning sunrises or afternoon sunrises. Well Thanks for everything you've done for me like putting the letter on Phils car since I know you haven't forgotten that I made you do that Stay "mad" I hope we'll have lots of good times this Summer at good ol' Bassett and the Cottage. But make ~~sure~~ yours sure Chuck doesn't try to put out the fire Love Snotter after Bocky

Robby,
I'm lost for words. Becky took my space but I'll write here anyway. Your call a baboon. I don't know what to write

Robin,

Times have really changed, but things do seem to work out for the better. Thanks for being there when I needed you. I'm glad things worked out for you and we're still friends. Have a good summer and write to me in Canada. Take it easy. Love always,

Dawn

Robin,
To my little Bird, your such a dink. You've got to be one of my best friends I've met at EAST. Thanx for the talks the love and understanding. memories will always be in my mind and in my heart. Never forget all we've been through. Lets learn a lesson from a good friend in ohio, friends are for keeps and it means a lot to keep in touch. Stop by any time and maybe will venture down to O'ville this summer. Take it easy. Your credit is still good even though you still owe for those favors!

Love ya lots
John

Barboon,
I have this urge to write something really profound. But I'd rather read it. There's a party tonight & I'm not invited. Oh well. I'll just have to find my own fun. My little Taurus spirit will overcome. You're always hopefully & I'm sure as your absolute & sweet as ever.

Love, Carol
